Spotlight on Scotland

Edinburgh Castle

A mighty fortress, Edinburgh Castle is at the end of the famous 'Royal Mile' and boasts superb views across the whole city and beyond. Walking up the cobbled streets with your tickets in your hand, you certainly can't miss the entrance to Edinburgh Castle, as it's guarded by two sentries – and yes they do wear kilts! End your visit with a 2-course meal at a restaurant nearby.

From £42.25

Stirling Castle

A historic stronghold, Stirling Castle sits atop a dramatic hill overlooking the city and the River Forth. As you approach along the charming streets, your tickets in hand, the castle's impressive gatehouse comes into view, guarded by sentries in traditional attire – a perfect welcome to Scotland's royal past. Wrap up the day with a 2-course lunch at a local pub.

From £38.60

Urquhart Castle

Perched on the edge of Loch Ness, Urquhart Castle offers stunning views across the shimmering waters and surrounding Highlands. Wandering along the ruins with your ticket in hand, you'll feel the history come alive, from ancient towers to the crumbling walls that once defended this iconic Scottish stronghold. Enjoy a 2-course lunch after your visit at a local pub.

From £36.40

Spotlight on Scotland

Palace of Holyroodhouse

Step into the grandeur of Scotland's royal history at the Palace of Holyroodhouse. Nestled at the end of the historic Royal Mile in Edinburgh, this magnificent palace has been the official residence of Scottish monarchs for centuries. Explore the opulent State Apartments, adorned with exquisite tapestries, paintings, and period furniture, and wander through the serene gardens that stretch along the palace grounds. End the day with a delicious 2-course lunch at a local pub nearby.

From £43.00

Real Marys Kings Close

Hidden beneath the bustling streets of Edinburgh, Real Mary King's Close takes you on a journey through centuries-old alleyways and forgotten homes. With your ticket in hand, descend into the dimly lit passageways where stories of the city's past come alive, from haunted tales to everyday life in old Edinburgh. Savour a 2-course lunch at nearby venue after your visit.

From £45.00

Out and About

Dalata Christmas Party

Alex and Heather took a trip to Ireland for the Dalata Christmas Party in Dublin.

Staying at the Gibson Hotel, by the 3 Arena, they had a lovely 3 course dinner followed by a fantastic night of entertainment. While in Dublin they visited some iconic landmarks including Temple Bar, looking very festive with the Christmas lights up.

Tower Bridge Breakfast

We were invited for a wonderful breakfast at Tower Bridge with Social Pantry, followed by a private guided tour of the famous walkways and Victorian engine rooms, where we learned about the bridge's remarkable past and how this iconic landmark has connected London since the 19th century.

National Gallery FAM trip

We also hosted our very own FAM trip for some of our key operators, showcasing an exclusive early-morning, out-of-hours tour at the National Gallery, giving everyone a rare chance to explore world-class masterpieces in peaceful, crowd-free surroundings.
